

Community Group Discussion Questions

Icebreaker: After a brief description of BLESS ask, “Who did you BLESS this past week?”

Have someone read Revelation 21:1-6.

General Knowledge Questions

- What does this passage show us about God?
- What are some of the things that God is making new?
- What are some of the effects on humanity that all things are being made new?

Application Questions

The resurrection of Jesus means that we get to experience a whole new heaven and earth

- What features of earth do you most enjoy?
 - How do you imagine them being better than you have ever experienced them?
- What are the things that you enjoy least about the earth?
 - How do you imagine life without them?

The resurrection of Jesus means that our relationship with God will be different than we experience now.

- How do you relate to the idea of not just knowing God is there by faith, but actually being able to see Him?
- What does it mean to you to get to experience God’s unmistakable, tangible, and visible presence?

The resurrection of Jesus means that our lives matter now.

If you read history you will find that the Christians who did most for the present world were precisely those who thought most of the next.—CS Lewis

- Who are you planning to BLESS this week?
- How are you planning to BLESS them?

Let’s pray for one another

- Thank anyone who has crossed the line of shame
- Pray for anyone that you want to be sure that they will experience the new heavens and earth with you.
- Pray for those who are thirsty to come to Jesus and have their thirst quenched.